THE CROPS

The prospect of the crops so far is good, and the rain now comes betimes. The wheat farmers have now nearly finished sowing, if we except those in the far South on the Rio Negro, Patagones and Chubut, where the season is always later. Owing to the want of reliable statistics it is impossible to say which will be the greater crop in this province next season, wheat or lino; the latter has taken the most extraordinary development, and not only chacareros and farmers have taken to it, but also merchants and capitalists have embarked in the business; and parties who have paid particular attention to this new crop are of opinion that if the crop prove 'regular,' it will give a gain to the province in the 'cosecha' of half a million stg. We noticed the other day in Mr Schwartz's establishment a machine which he is making for the utilizing of the fibre, which will increase the value of this product; and it is pleasant to think that whilst our cereals show a rapid increase in this province, advices from the other provinces are equally favourable. The crops sown in Cordoba are more than double that of last year, and from Entre Rios we have the same advices. The colonies in that province are growing rapidly; the large estancia on the Parana sold by the Nat. Bank and bought by Messrs Le Febre and others but a few months ago, is one of the most speaking evidences of the steady march of agriculture. The new proprietors marked out several leagues for colonists' farms, and already they have been all bought up and are now in the hands of colonists who have ploughed the land and are sowing their crops; and such has been the remarkable rapidity with which all these farm have been disposed of, that it is probable Messrs Febre & Co. will apply the whole estate, which is one of the largest properties in Entre Rios to colonization purposes.

In the province of Santiago del Estero, once the most lethargic district in the Republic, the whole country, men, women and children have taken to sugar-planting, for which the soil is particularly adapted, the sugar-cane giving greater yield than in Tucuman or the Chaco. Whoever doubts the capabilities of Santiago del Estero in this respect should inspect the sugar which comes from the plantation and manufactory of the Sres. San Germes, which is pronounced by competent authority to be superior to that produced in other parts, and before the railway is made from Santa Fe to Santiago del Estero, the sugar crop of that province will rival the wool crop of Buenos Aires.

In the province of San Juan the wine industry promises an equal importance; and in Mendoza they are already preparing a claret to supply this market. More land this season has been put under wheat in Mendoza than ever before, and spite of the heavy freight charges, flour comes down from there to Rosario. In Cordoba they have doubled this year the wheat crop of any previous year, and, as for Santa Fe, we have no space here to give a detailed sketch of the wondrous growth of new colonies. If the season 'prove regular,' the wheat crop of Santa Fe this year will astonish every one, and the immense grain deposit put up in Rosario, capable of holding 40,000 fanegas of wheat, will be taxed to their utmost.

In the south of the Province of Buenos Ayres the wheat farms this season have notably increased, and wherever one goes through the districts of Azul, Tandil, Olavarria, Ayacucho, Las Flores and Maipu, he meets with immense wheat farms, whilst from the west we have the same advices respecting 25 de Mayo, 9 de Julio, Lincoln, Junin, Chacabuco. In Chivilcoy and Bragado 'lino' has taken precedence of wheat, in San Nicolas, Pergamino and Baradero, both crops are largely grown, whilst in Lobos and Saladillo wheat is in the ascendant.

The export of maize this year is much larger than before, and those who watch the vessels chartered and the cargoes of the steamers cannot fail to observe the very rapid growth of this export.

In giving our readers this chapter on the crops we have purposely avoided any statement that appeared to us exaggerated, and facts that have been told us by an English farmer in Quilmes respecting the lino crops, we hold over until the season is more advanced, and when we shall have greater certainty of its yield. A gentleman who has just returned from Santa Fe, and who knows that province for many years, assures us that, but that he has seen with his own eyes the remarkable industrial development that is going on up there, he would not have believed it. Parties who dwell so much on the loss to this country by the fall in the price of wool and the abolition of 'curso forsoso' would do well to study the gains the country is making in other branches, and the pesimists who can read no other future for the Plate than crisis and misfortune should make a trip through the provinces and judge the country by some better standard than the black board on the Bolsa.

THE EXHIBITION.

Frequenters of the Plaza Once de Setiembre have been somewhat astonished at the 'statu quo' of the Exhibition works for the last month, and many surmised that there was another hitch in the business, and that this long-talked-of Exhibition would have to be postponed for another year; however, they counted without their host. The works have been at a stand-still merely pending the calling for bids from contractors. Yesterday the bids were opened in the saloons of the Colon by the Exhibition Committee, and the public will in a few days see the works begun, the plan of the edifice having been already published and given round.

Exhibitions in Buenos Ayres have always proved a success, and we see no reason to doubt the result of the present one; the enterprize is carried out by a company formed for the purpose whose share capital, although but one million, will prove ample, owing to the generous support which the National Government has promised. All the shares of the Exhibition Company are subscribed for and they can only be purchased to-day at a handsome premium.

Merchants and others would do well to avail of the opportunity to exhibit their wares; and we have reason to know that in the line of foreign prize cattle there will be exhibitors from all parts of Europe. Space seems to be the essential, and we recommend all to apply in time, as there will evidently be a squeeze.

The pavement of Calle Rivadavia west of Calle Callao is so shocking that much of the success of this exhibition will depend on the Lord Mayor, and all the street must be 'adoquinado' up to the Plaza before the inauguration in February. The matter is now before the Municipality, and meets with some difficulty owing to Congress not having passed the law for 'adoquinaring' the city; but we have no doubt Mr Alvear will overcome this difficulty and have this great highway paved in time for the ceremony.

Many visitors from the West Coast, from Brazil, and even from Europe and the United States are expected. The most illustrious is the Emperor of Brazil who will come incog. This being His Majesty's first visit to the Plate, he may rest assured of a hearty welcome, as in no country is Don Pedro II. more esteemed than here, where his public acts have been always watched and measured, and his wise and friendly counsel in River Plate questions thoroughly appreciated.

At the meeting yesterday nearly all the members of the Committee attended.

A number of bids for the construction and for the carpenter work were opened; the sums varied from 2½ to 3 millions, but until to-day nothing will be decided as to these bids. Next week the works of the building will be begun, and like everything in Buenos Ayres, the building promises to be extravagantly grand.

The following sub committees for the different parishes have been named, which shows how in earnest the board is to employ every measure to secure the best success.

PROVINCIAL STATISTICS

The Statistical Office of the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres has made a step in the right direction by publishing some interesting figures with regard to the population of the province. It is to be hoped that the labors of the office will not end there, and that soon, as in the United States, we may be informed of the numbers of proprietors of sheep, cattle etc., of the acres of land under wheat, flax, maize etc., of the trees, houses, etc.: in fact the Statistical Office should be able next year to publish figures on every important item in reference to the province. But to effect this, the Government, in its budget of expenses revised by the Legislative Committee, should pay as much attention to the 'personnel' of the Statiscal Office as to that of the Contaduria. The labors of the former are more varied and more extensive even than those of the latter; and the legislators may readily endorse our axiom that good statistics mean good government and good finances. The Statistical Office rules everything, and is a prominent feature of every well-governed country; the arrangement of its figures shut the door on all debates in 'terra incognita' when budgets are framed, taxes levied, troops mobilised and so forth, on no basis, since the very figures of population have been up to the present mere calculations of an individual nature.

It is with pleasure, therefore, tha we hail this move in the right direction, but the Government should industriously strive to make every Juez de Paz in the camp send in the figures of his department on printed forms, and insure his co-operation in the laudable object. The very figures published by the statistical Department prove the inefficiency of these camp justices, since all, or nearly all, those published are from the different Curias: viz., baptisms, marriages, deaths. As regards the immediate sphere of the Juez de Paz there is a remarkable hiatus, which should be immediately filled up.

With regard to the figures published, the following will be found interesting; they refer to the second quarter of the year:—

Population of the Province on 1st April 1881.....	607,443
Excess of births over deaths	2,284
Settled in the province..	1,503
Estimate of population of Province on the 1st of July 1881.....	611,290

The deaths during those three months were as follows.

Males.....	1,350
Females.....	1,049
	2,399

Only 2,399 people out of a population of 611,290 souls died during the trimestre. Verily this is a remarkably healthy country; the death rate is at a minimum, especially if we consider that in these figures are included over 100 accidental deaths.

Births afford plenty of room for moral censure—

	Legitimate	Illegitimate
Males.....	1,803	548
Females.....	1,683	556
	3,486	1,104

Resumen—

Births.....	4,683
Deaths.....	2,399
Balance.....	2,284

It must be borne in mind that only baptised children are comprised in these figures; the non-christians may be numerous.

There is a remarkable contrast between the statistics of marriages in the Capital and in the province; the native element largely predominates in the camp districts, as can be gathered from the following figures—

Argentine marriages.....	415
Do women to foreigners....	196
Foreign marriages.....	270
Do women to natives.....	17
Various.....	4
	902

Thus the various nationalities stand as follows—

Between Argentines.....	46.00
Do foreigners.....	29.82
Do Argentine women and foreigners.....	21.72
Do foreign women and Argentines.....	1.88

It is quite remarkable how many foreigners marry Argentine women, and it is quite incredible how few Argentine men marry foreign women; there is no proportion at all between the figures.

The figures of produce in the camp appear too deficient for comment, and it would have been better had they not been published at all.

IMMIGRATION.

The tide of Welsh immigration that has set in to the Plate is very remarkable. The Welsh people, as a community, have no greater 'locus standi' in this country than the Chubut colony. Were they as rich or as influential as the English, the Irish, or the Scotch, it would not be so surprising, the monthly arrival of large batches in Lamport and Holt's steamers Did the Arg. Government give them free passages out to the Plate, or send special agents to Wales to invite them to emigrate, one could better understand the movement, but none of our sheep-farmers or estanciero princes are Welshmen, and their foothold in this country is in a distant part where no other foreigner has as yet had the courage or the enterprise to make a start.

Strange fact: that the Irish sheep farmers, who as a class are richer than any immigrant class in this country, and much more independent than their countrymen of the same walk in life in any other country fed by immigration, have utterly failed to create a migratory flow from their native Island such as the hardy Welsh peasants of Chubut have now established; and the question becomes a severe one for us, to trace the causes which lead to such an important hegira of Welshmen to the Plate, when English, Irish and Scotch immigration to this country is nowhere. Within the last week we have seen 90 Welshmen started for the Chubut, with Mr Jones at their head, to settle on new lands in the Chubut valley, and make for themselves new houses and new farms, whilst a single Irish family that arrived out here at the same time, is still in this city unemployed.

The magnitude of the question assumes still greater importance when we consider that hardly has the steamer Villarino cleared from the Boca with 90 Welshmen, than the Euclid and the Bessel enter port with some 80 more Welshmen; and, let us for a moment suppose that these new arrivals were from Ireland instead of Wales, how different then would be the position. Our Welsh countrymen by the steamers Bessel and Euclid are all bound for the Chubut, where they have a common centre. The Government has to give them board and lodging here in town, a free passage down to Chubut, consign them to Mr. Jones, and instruct the 'agrimensor' to work out the lands for them to make their homes: but if these immigrants were Irishmen, it would become a Cabinet question how to settle with them. The Irish community is scattered over the whole province. The sheepfarmers, individually, are rich and independent: but collectively they are nowhere, and since both Governments, National and Provincial, are anxious to bring out Irish immigrants, and Dean Dillon has gone home on a special mission for that purpose, it does seem opportune to remark on the great necessity of forming some centre, like the Chubut colony, towards which the Irish immigration could converge.

If the National Government has no other lands to dispose of save those in the Valley of the Chubut, at least steps might be taken to apportion some of the new lands in the upper part of that valley for an Irish colony, since we are unwilling to suppose that the lands to which the new Welsh colonists are going are better suited for Welsh than for Irish agricultural farmers.

The Irish colony in the River Plate needs a man like Mr. Jones to settle down there, look after his countrymen, start them in their farms, represent them with the Government, and supply their wants for the first year or so. We apprehend that some action should be taken in this matter, and the English merchants would much consult their own and their countrymen's interest by forming a committee for the purpose, and by means of deputation or otherwise impressing upon the Government the necessity of some method, some organization, in any way that our humble services can be of use we but too willingly offer them, and it is really impossible to suppose that the British community in the River Plate can be so utterly destitute of representation that a dozen good men and true cannot be found to join hands, put their shoulders to the wheel and accomplish something.

The papers received from Ireland by the Trent's mails give the following notice:—

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Emigration to the Argentine Republic, Buenos Ayres. Emigrants, on arrival, are landed at the expense of the Government, and boarded and lodged free for five days, assisted to pass the Custom House, afforded every information to enable them to find employment, and finally sent free to wherever they elect to settle. All this done by National Government employees who speak all languages, the emigrant being free to take or reject any advice given to him: so that all intending emigrants can go to the Argentine Republic with perfect confidence, although they may have no relatives there, as they will meet, in all quarters of the Republic, public employess specially bound to watch over them till they learn the customs of the country.

The wages during the harvest, which lasts four months, are from 30 to 45 hard dollars (6 to 8 pounds sterling) per month, with board and lodgings (the hard dollar is worth 4s 2d English money).

The best time for farmers, agricultural labourers, indeed for all labourers to arrive there, is from October to January. Farmers with a capital of from 80 to 120 pounds sterling may go at any season of the year.

No country in the world offers greater advantages to the farmer and stock breeder.

The climate is temperate and healthy, land is cheap and fertile and can be worked all the year, as snow is unknown. There are immense tracts of pasture land, and boundless forests: every kind of stock can be had at lower prices than in any other country: there are numerous trunk railway lines, deep rivers, almost daily communication with Europe, institutions almost similar to those of the United States, and even more liberal for foreigners, who acquire land in fee.

Each of the thirteen Provinces of the Republic has passed special laws for the donation or sale of 'chacra' (small farm) lots near the towns, which can be purchased at equally moderate price and are given gratis in some provinces.

Price of Stock.

Horned cattle for breeding 1 pound 10 shillings per head.

Sheep 3 shillings and 6 pence per head

Mares 15 shillings do.

For further information apply to Monsignor Dillon, All Hallows College, Drumcondra, Dublin, or to J. S. Dillon, at the old-established Emigration Office, Victoria Place, Galway.

GERMAN IMMIGRATION.

Whilst perusing one of last year's numbers of the well-known German publication Geographische Nachrichten, we remarked that this magazine comprised a series of articles on immigration to the South of Brazil and to the Argentine Republic. Seldom have such articles been written on a whole with a more impartial pen. Amongst other important articles, one was specially devoted to advice and warnings, as regards the immigration into Rio Grande, where there is at present settled quite a German province. Who would credit the fact that there are 60,000 Germans in Rio Grande do Sul, in general all thriving and prosperous? These men, years ago, settled in the virgin forest and through dint of hard work have arrived at their present prosperous condition. Rio Grande, Santa Catharina, and Parana, according to the writer of the article, are the only Brazilian provinces where Germans can settle with advantage; more to the North the climate is too hot and the productions differ greatly from those with which a German in general is well acquainted. Many Italians and Tyrolese, although accustomed to warmer climates than the Germans, had to leave the Northern Brazilian provinces owing to excessive heat and their want of experience in the cultivation of coffee, sugar and cotton.

It is laid down as an axiom that none should emigrate unless there are no possible means of making a profitable living at home; a very salutary warning, as cases may occur, as happened with the Frenchman Wagner who, although at ease in Algiers, entertained hopes too bright of bettering his condition in this Republic. A man who emigrates must leave prepared for very hard work, and with the condition that in the country where he intends settling he must undergo hardships and forego commodities for some time to which he may have been accustomed in his fatherland. This is the secret why men with small capital and humble aspirations have so often achieved so much more on the highroad to the future in this country than those who land in the Paseo Julio and lodge in the fashionable La Paix with money in their pockets, but total inexperience to handle same in a country where everything is new to them and nearly the antithesis to home experiences.

The Germans who settled in Rio Grande, for the most part, owe their success to the impecunious condition in which they landed at Porto Alegre; and this success cannot be too much praised when one considers that their settlements were in virgin forest, where the hand of man had to do everything; very unlike our smiling pampas, which welcome the immigrant. Agriculture in the Rio Grande forests is a very different task to the production of cereals in the plains of the Province of Buenos Aires or of Santa Fe. It is, therefore, not to be woudered at when the Nachrichten warns all dainty individuals from settling in parts where life is an ordeal of heavy labor; furthermore, unmarried men are warned away, unless they wish to be employed as servants. The latter circumstance is easily explained by the fact, taught by experience, that you cannot expect a man to settle in a virgin forest quite alone, and female work and companionship is necessary. When several young men unite in such a settlement, discord generally ruins them all. As can be seen, Rio Grande lacks many advantages offered by the Argentine Republic, but let it not be thought for one moment that the Rio Grande German colonies owe their prosperity to any Government help and influence. So far from such being the case, the emigrant is warned of accepting any free passages and advances offered by the Government: he is told that they portend his ruin, as he is at the mercy of the Government and his destination is an Imperial colony, where bundled with French, Italian, Polish and Russian colonists he must rough life in strange surroundings; money, house and implements are advanced to him, besides the land, but the debt is a burden which stifles all his attempts and all his progress. The experience afforded by our Santa Fe colonies does not corroborate this malefic influence of advances from the Government, but it cannot be denied that in many cases it fosters an artificial prosperity and idleness. But it appears that the Imperial colonies in Rio Grande labour under many defects in spite of the many advantages offered to the emigrants.

The roads are abominable and the management of the colonies by inexperienced and young Brazilians has had bad results. But the chief drawback of same to the German emigrant consists in their heterogeneous population; nationalities clash, customs are different and tradition and language do not engender that sympathy and cohesion so desirable in first settlements. Two-thirds of the population of the Imperial colonies consists of Italians, who are everything but akin to Germans, not to mention Frenchmen, Greeks and Poles. The writer in the pamphlet asserts that no German can thrive in the Imperial colonies.

The provincial colonies of the Rio Grande Government stand in remarkable contrast to the imperial ones; the advances are limited to passage money and land grants, and the colonies are most successful. The lands are good and the population is mainly German. There are only three provincial colonies, and at the most 300 families can now find accommodation in same. The private colonies stand on the same footing as the Provincial ones; passage money and price of land must be refunded in a term of years; the land-grants comprise 48 hectares, with prices varying from 200 to 3000 milreis; the first payment is effected after the third year; interest 6 per cent.

The German who settles in the provincial and private colonies can reckon on help from his countrymen. On every side he hears the language of his country; its customs are perpetuated and a new Germany is springing up. Naturally men with a good education and accustomed to refined living should never think of settling in this Germanised Rio Grande, since, as the Nachrichten says, they will meet with very severe deceptions. The hardy tiller of the soil and the woodcutter are the men who alone can entertain hopes of undoubted success. Perseverance and industry will always crown the efforts of the latter class.

COLONIA GENERAL CONESA—PATAGONIA.

The Colonia General Conesa is situated on the south bank of the Rio Negro, about 45 leagues from the mouth of said river and 40 from the town of Viedma, the capital of Patagonia, and the same distance from the town of Carmen de Patagones, situated on the north bank of the river. Communication is kept up by three small river steamers two or three times per month, also by land once or twice per week, there being a good bullock road direct from the capital to the colony. Here are quartered the remnant of the late chief Catriel's tribe of Tapalcanero Indians, who surrendered to the Government some six or seven years ago: they are a very peaceful, industrious and intelligent tribe of Indians. They receive regularly their rations from the Government, and are now going to plough and sow wheat, barley, maize &c., for themselves, on farms allotted to each of them, the Government supplying them with the seeds, implements, bullocks, &c., gratis.

The 'Intendente' of the colony is a well-known military officer, Teniente Colonel Dn. Pedro Diez Arenas, an officer of very great experience on this frontier, very friendly to all foreigners, and greatly respected for his kind, gentlemanly courteous conduct to all who seek employment or information respecting this colony

In the centre of the colony is a well-formed little town, with good sun-dried brick houses, a National Government school for boys and girls, several good general stores, where you can buy groceries, &c., at very little over the prices in the capital.

Chacras, 625 metres front by 625 metres back, are granted to all adult colonists gratis, also a building site 50 metres by 50 metres, in the town, rations till the colonists have reaped their first harvest, also ploughs harrows, bullocks, seeds, implements, &c.

The climate is very healthy and well adapted for British, German and Danish settlers, who are not accustomed to the great heat experienced in the northern parts of the Republic. The camp is very fertile; wood is to be had in abundance, and game of all sorts is very plentiful.

This year there is every prospect of a good harvest, in consequence of the river not overflowing its banks as in years past, and all are sowing in greater abundance than in former years.

Intending colonists need have no fear of wild Indians, as the camps are now entirely free from them; in fact, they have never given much trouble on this side of the Rio Negro. The tame Indians who are settled here are nearly all Christians, and now have all their children baptized. I and my family have lived here several months, and in all this time have never heard of any disturbance between the Indians or the Christians; in fact, the colony is so well regulated that it is quieter and more peaceable than many towns in other parts of this Republic.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

If the English Literary Society of Buenos Aires never did anything else for the British community in the Plate than to afford us now and then such a night's entertainment as the performance at the Opera Theatre on Wednesday night, then the society has the highest claims on us all and merits our widest support.

Mr. Martin organises victory, and his success on Wednesday was his greatest and his best in a long list of histrionic efforts which will endear his name for generations to that rather divided community termed the British public of the Plate. Mr. Martin possesses the elements to bring us together, and the charming efforts of the gems that form his bright galaxy we may say hold us together.

In London the Calle Corrientes Theatre could not have presented a more English 'coup d'œil. It was British from floor to roof, and whether for charity or learning, we must all stand by those entertainments which, aside from the funds for the most desirable objects that they secure, acquaint us with individual talent which we have amongst us, and which we must cultivate, and not, as in former years, completely overlook.

We find ourselves short of expression to do full justice to the two talented young ladies who shone on the boards in the amusing play of 'Checkmate:' Miss Stanford and, Miss Crabtree, as amateurs of great we might say the highest, talent, they have, indeed, established their claims. Both these young ladies were not only perfect in their parts but appeared at home in them and free from all nervousness, &c., so common amongst lady amateurs. Both ladies spoke their parts with such an emphasized clearness, that the wit and cutting humour of the author was in nothing lost on the audience.

Mr. Miller seemed to us to be a born baronet, whilst our friend Mr. Martin is a born comedian. Many of the audience, owing to Mr, Alvear's invitation, 10 o'clock sharp, were unwillingly obliged to leave the theatre at the conclusion of the first piece, and thus, in truth, were 'check-mated.' The second part was, according to the general vote, superior to the first: yet 'Checkmate' was, indeed, inimitable, and will well bear repetition.

What shall we say of Faust? We have hardly ceased laughing yet. The general verdict in the lobbies when the audience was breaking up was that it was the best thing yet achieved by the amateurs. We have no space to follow the play and all its puns and quips all through; Faust must be seen to be appreciated, and we endorse the general hope that it may be repeated shortly. Mr, Biggs, as Faust, was really inimitable; his first song, 'Juvenile again' (a parody on 'Libiamo' from La Traviata) was the gem of the evening, and was vociferously encored. Alonzo, Mr. Campbell, contributed a full share to the enjoyment of the audience; his Bombastes acting during the review of his soldiers, and the song 'All wounded' (air pirated from the 'The Pirates') made the sides of the audience ache with laughter. Mr. Miller was very good as Mephistopheles; the song with the demon chorus, from La Fille de Madame Angot, tickled the house most.

As for the lady characters, in spite of our rooted objection to men in petticoats, we must warmly compliment Mr. W F Mackern as Sybel, and Mr Moore as Margarita. The latter made a very big lair one indeed, but his acting made up for his size, and it was specially good in the scene where Faust tempted her to meet him, in spite of the virtuous indignation of the old dame Martha, who was capitally represented by Mr. E D Mackern. The parody on the beautiful air, 'Di Provenza,' from Traviata, 'Influenza is about, so I'll stay no longer out,' fairly convulsed the house.

Shall we forget one of the most talented and hardest worked of the whole amateur corps? Forbid it, Justice! No praise can be too great for Mr. Naghten, the 'chef d'orchestre.' How he got his department into such shape is really a puzzle to us. Bassi could teach him nothing. The 'mise-en-scene' was very good, the tableau in the scene of Imogene's vision being all but perfect.

We doff our best hat to the whole amateur corps and send them warmest congratulations for their success on Wednesday evening.

NATIONAL COLONIES.

We willingly publish the following letter from Mr John Dillon, ex-Chief Commissioner of Immigration. Immigration is the question of the day, far more than any other, and everything connected with it is of vital importance. The acknowledged shortcomings in our Immigration system cannot fairly be laid at Mr Dillon's door, as he really did wonders with the utterly inadequate means placed at his disposal by Congress, with which the blame mainly lies, for not having long ere this given the country a sound, practical Homestead Law, and other measures calculated to attract Europeans to this country. The political disturbances last year may also fairly be charged with a considerable proportion of the chaos now existing in our Immigration affairs.

B. Aires, Aug. 8th.

To the Editor of the Standard

Dear Sir

In your article on Colonization of Buenos Aires yesterday, you state 'the signal failure of so many National colonies, etc.'

The National colonies are such as I described them in my report of 1879 and in that published in the Tribuna Nacional in 1880, when I handed over their administration. The colonists live without any necessity of help, and as well as any settlers in private colonies of the same years. You have seen the Colony of Esperanza, which may be called the mother of the remainder, you know its actual condition and its history of five years' hard struggle, and you also know the Candelaria colony of Mr Casado, its varying fortunes, and that 800,000 $f. were spent on it. Remember how much Thompson Bonar spent in the colony Alejandra, and what great difficulties had to be overcome, the same as in the Central Colonies.

You may thus perceive that to create and forms colonies is not as easy as to blow bottles; and the difficulties are enhanced with the number; nevertheless they have been planted on sound foundations, although, with the exception of Chubut, they hardly average an existence of four or five years.

The colonies are:—

Chuput, the prosperity of which is well known.

Villa Libertad, that since two years receives no support, and if it has not paid off one-fifth of its debts this year, it is because same has not been collected.

General Alvear (Russians): the colonists petition for more land, in order to accommodate their families from Russia.

President Avellaneda, in the Chaco, a model of good management, and whose Comisario was sent by my orders especially, in April 1880, in order to put the other colonies on a similar footing.

Resistencia, also in the Chaco, needs no support, and the Comisario states that all the settlers are able to pay.

Formosa, also in the Chaco, and remotest colony, had to meet many drawbacks and needed support, but the colony is prosperous now.

The settlers on the last three colonies earnestly request that their families be brought from Europe, and such a request would not be likely if they did not thrive.

Sampacho, on the Andine Railway, prospers and needs no protection.

Caroya is in a thriving condition: it is situated in the province of Cordoba.

There remain finally Reconquista, Iriondo and Olavarria, which although provincial colonies, owe their success in part to national management.

There has, therefore, been no signal failure as you state: the only attempt that collapsed was the San Javier, and as regards the Santa Cruz, its colonization was never carried on in earnest: this accounts for its want of success.

As regards results, the three above-mentioned Chaco colonies have given rise to three others of a private character, not to mention the many other enterprises daily recorded by the newspapers. These are all results of those colonies and of their success.

There were defects in the domestic management, no doubt, which were being gradually corrected, without any need of bringing them before the public, since otherwise the loss would have been heavier than the gain; but, I repeat, the colony Libertad was able to pay on the strength of the last harvest 20,000 $f. of its debt, and the other colonies will be in a condition to do the same next harvest, unless some unforeseen calamity should check their present prosperity.

I remain

Yours, etc.

Juan Dillon.

GILLARD'S
SHEEP DIP

This Dip is most carefully prepared by the latest improved methods and can be used with

Supplied to the Prince of Wales's Farm at SANDRINGHAM
TESTIMONIALS.

From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.

From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.

"The market is being flooded with sheep dips, some of which are all that is claimed, and also by some which are worth little or nothing. Our readers will have noticed that several preparations have been mentioned in letters received from the camps showing that there are several good preparations."—B.A. HERALD.

NOTE—A sample drum will be supplied gratis to any Estanciero who is willing to give the Dip a fair trial and report on same

Deutsches Adressbuch

Um vielen an mich ergangenen Aufforderungen zu entsprechen, habe ich mich entschlossen, das, meinem in 1879 veröffentlichen Kalender angefügte Adressbuch in neuer, berichtigter und vermehrter Auflage heraus zu geben.

Ich erlaube mir daher die ergebene Bitte an alle in Buenos Aires wohnende Deutsche, Schweizer, Holländer, Belgier, Dänen, Schweden, Russen, kurz an alle Deutschredende, mich bei diesem Unternehmen durch freundliche Aufgabe neuer Adressen und Berichtigungen von Fehlern, die sich in meinen letzten Kalender eingeschlichen haben, zu unterstützen.

Da mein 79r Adressbuch an fast allen Comptoiren und in den meisten Familien ein stetes Handbuch geworden ist, seine Nützlichkeit also sich zur Genüge dar gethan hat, darf ich wohl die feste Hoffnung hegen, dass meiner Bitte von Allen entsprochen werde.

So nur dürfte es möglich sein, das Büchlein in einer seinen Zweck erfüllenden Vollkommenheit herzustellen.

Die Aufnahme aller Adressen ist selbstverständlich gratis, und der Nutzen, der namentlich Geschäftsinhabern, Gewerbtreibenden etc. daraus erwächst, wenn ihre Namen und Adressen richtig aus diesem Buche zu ersehen sind, braucht wohl nicht erst aus einander gesetzt zu werden.

REVIEW FOR EUROPE.

The Argentine Congress has as yet taken no action respecting the Chilian Treaty, although the National Government has already submitted it for its approval. It is probable, however, that before the leaving of the next mail we shall be able to report some progress in this all-important matter. In Chile the treaty is in the same 'statu quo' and we believe they are waiting there to hear what Congress does in this Republic. That in both countries there may be some slight opposition is anticipated, but both Governments possess large majorities in their favour, and we think we are justified in assuring our European readers that the Treaty, of which we have already advised them, will be ultimately approved of in both countries. The state of affairs in Bolivia is without alteration and we have heard nothing more of the Chilian expeditionary force that was ordered to invade that country. In Peru Pierola maintains a species of 'guerrilla' warfare which is both harassing and annoying to the Chilians, but nothing that the Chilians can do will win allegiance or friendship from the Peruvians, and it is rumoured that the United States Government will not consent to the annexation of Peru by Chile.

The Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres has very successfully negotiated its 20,000,000 Consolidated Loan with the great house of Barings, and we give in another column all the particulars, as yet disclosed, referring to this business. Dr Jorge, President of the Western Railway, leaves for England as special agent for the Provincial Government to sign the new bonds, and it is currently said that his instructions enable him to treat with London bankers for a loan of £5,000,000 stg. to pay for the expropriation of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway. How true this may be, we cannot say. Mr Parish, the President of the Company, is at present in this city, as also Mr Barker, its Secretary, and we feel quite certain that if political influences have nothing to do with the expropriation of this road, these London representatives of the Company will have very little difficulty in arranging all matters of dispute with the Government. The very rapid growth of the South shows the necessity of the extension of this grand trunk road to Bahia Blanca; an extension which can be cheaply and expeditiously carried out by the Company but which, if left to the Government, may take many long years to accomplish.

Great preparations are being made for the Exhibition which is to come off next February. Congress has just voted £20,000 to help the enterprise, which is being carried out by a Joint Stock Company, composed of some of the most influential men in this city. Manufacturers and others in Europe should direct their agents out here to apply in time for sufficient space, and breeders in Europe of prize sheep, cattle and horses, will probably never have a better opportunity to exhibit and sell their stock in this country. The business going on now in the import of prize cattle from Europe is one of the largest, and in a few years the breed of cattle on the estancias will be as much improved as our sheep. The Exhibition therefore will tend immensely to develop this trade, and there are many of our sheepfarmers who will compete with European farmers in the exhibition of prize Merino, Rambouillet, and Negrette sheep. Another very important trade to be developed by this Exhibition will be agricultural machinery. For the size of our farms and the extent of our crops there is more money spent for machines in this country than elsewhere, and just as fast as our colonies extend, and our farms grow will the demand increase for all labour-saving machines.

We have to report during the fortnight one of the largest estancia purchases ever made in this country; 111 sq. leagues of land in one lot, Mr Edward Casey purchaser. The land is some of the finest in this province, fit alike for sheep and cattle, with mountained vale, wood and water. There is no other property in this country to be compared with it, and in the hands of this enterprising gentleman it will in a few years be stocked and settled upon; 100,000 cows, and half a million sheep will at the lowest estimate be the first stock to start this enormous estancia.

The winter season is now nearly over, and so far it has proved most favourable; we have all the promise of a splendid harvest season for wool, cattle, and cereals, and should the season prove as favourable as are expect, the fortunes of the River Plate next year will almost rival, but on a smaller scale, the industrial prosperity of the U. States. As a rule, everyone who buys estancia lands makes money, and such is the continued demand for breeding cattle for the new estancias, started at every point, notwithstanding the very great decline of the premium on gold, the price of horned cattle is maintained; not so however, with sheep, which are much offered, and at prices below that of last year. The fall in the price of wool, the increased value of our paper money, and the impossibility of putting sheep on the outside lands; all tend to cheapen the prices of the flocks, and many think that the price of sheep will be much lower next year.

There has been a very brisk business in wool during the last few days, and over 100,000 arrobes sold from the deposits. The buyers are chiefly French. We have still, however, a large stock of wool on hand, which, we believe, it will be difficult to move all off before the shearing.

The steady flow of Welsh emigrants to the River Plate is a very hopeful sign, and the Government is using every effort to meet the requirements of this most important immigration. New lands in the valley of the Chubut are being surveyed and subdivided into farms for our Welsh countrymen; 90 left this city last week, with Mr Jones at their head, for the Chubut, in the Government steamer Villarino; 80 others have arrived since in the Lamport and Holt's steamers, and others are on the way out; but

President Roca is the champion of the Welshmen; he admires them for the difficulties they overcame when they first settled, and all the best and most fertile lands South of the Rio Negro, he says, shall be theirs, free of all charge, and if they require assistance for the first year or so, the Governme nt will afford it, on condition of the colonists repaying it.

A large tract of land within seven leagues of the town of Biedma, on the Rio Negro, has been apportioned by the Government for an Irish colony, where free farms are to be given to all the Irish families that Dean Dillon may send out, and the Minister has requested us to name a competent party to take the direction and management of this embryo Irish colony.

The same speculation in National Bank Shares that we noticed in our last continues, and the price of this stock is now 21 per cent premium, against 30 per cent discount that it was six months ago. No doubt the business of the Bank has greatly improved, and speculation in gold being almost at an end, there is nothing else for the brokers to speculate in. Cedulas maintain their price, and are fast finding their way to Europe; as an 8 per cent stock it is considered one of the most desirable investments, and we believe that very shortly arrangements will be made to pay the coupons in London.

The Provincial Bank completely rules the Exchange market, as it draws at a high rate in paper in order to check the speculation in gold. The market rates, therefore, are the bank rates:—

On London 49½-¾
On Paris 5.20
On Antwerp 5.21-22

"FERRO CARRIL DEL SUD."

We are specially informed that important changes have been decided upon in connection with this undertaking.

The changes will, we understand, not only embrace a considerable reduction in the passenger fares and goods rates, but also an acceleration of the speed of trains, more convenient hours of starting, and other additions to the comfort of the passengers, and the service of those who use the line.

The principle of charging differential rates for guaranteeing wool, hides, etc. etc, has been abolished, and henceforth the Company will respond for prompt and correct delivery of cargo entrusted to them.

It will be remembered that the enterprize found itself compelled to increase rates when the state of our depreciated currency reduced the dividend by something between five and six per cent, and it is gratifying to find that in the altered condition of things here, the Board have not hesitated to return to rates even lower than those which ruled prior to the suspension of specie payment in 1876.

It will be remembered that in October, a year ago, important reductions were made: and the further satisfactory step in the same direction shows that the speech made by Mr. Parish at the last general meeting in London was not the idle talk which some people chose to think it. He said that the Board meant to conduct the business of the line upon liberal commercial principles and to keep pace in every way with the growing requirements of the country. Those who know Mr. Parish will need no assurance that what he promises he will loyaylly fulfil. The alterations in the rates and fares and in the Company's time-table are to take effect from the 15th September, and we are promised full particulars and details in due time.

We are in a position also to state that many of the improvements of importance connected with the convenience of passengers and cargo will be introduced shortly, and that they are of such a nature as to give complete satisfaction to the public. We can only hope therefore that when these are done every possible motive of complaint will disappear, and that the Chairman's visit to B. Aires will result in placing the Grt. Southern Railway in perfect condition, and securing for it that popularity which it deserves as the most important foreign enterprize in this country and one of the most powerful elements connected with its prosperity, its further advancement and its credit abroad. It would, we venture to say, be a matter of no ordinary regret but almost amount to a National calamity of the opportunity thus afforded if taking advantage of all the good intentions of the Chairman on behalf of the Great Southern Railway Company were frustrated by any erroneous policy of expropriation.

THE RESURRECTIONISTS.

KNIGHTS OF THE NIGHT.

The attempt to raise two millions of paper dollars by snatching the body of the late Madame Dorrego from the family vault in the Recoleta Cemetery is a crime hitherto unknown in this country, and has created an unprecedented sensation. Nothing else was spoken of yesterday. The following are the full particulars of this extraordinary affair, which reads more like an episode in a sensational novel than sober reality. We feel it a duty to endorse the universal mead of praise accorded to the detective police for their clever and energetic action in the matter. Scotland Yard or the Rue de Jerusalem could not have done it better, and Commissary Tasso is specially deserving of reward by his superiors, as he volunteered for the service and played the leading role in the comedy. This affairs shows that, if the Buenos Aires police were as energetic and clever in the discharge of their everyday duties as they are on special occasions, the public would have nothing to complain of. The following are the particulars of this extraordinary business:—

On Thursday, about noon, Mrs. Felisa Dorrego de Miro, who lives in the Palace at the Parque, received the following note, neatly and correctly written (in a French hand) on the best cream-laid:—

Esteemed Madam,

You may probably faint on reading this, but there is no help for it, as circumstances beyond our control oblige us to act as we do. However, let us come to the point. We took your mother's remains from the family vault at the Recoleta, have them safe, and will treat them with every respect—on conditions.

Mrs Dorrego left her children a colossal fortune, and they can scarcely wish to have her remains outraged and scattered to the winds, and their good and distinguished name stained. Five millions would be a mere bagatelle for them, but we do not wish to be hard on you, and we will take two millions of paper dollars to restore the remains to the vault, respected and untouched—we swear it.

Should you refuse this condition—first, wee'l take them from the coffin, outrage them, burn them, and scatter them to the winds; secondly, the whole city and country will cover you with opprobrium for your want of filial love, gratitude and conscience; thirdly, we are numerous and powerful, and our bitter vengeance will overtake you in your gorgeous palaces, sooner or later; and fourthly, you may save yourself the trouble of telling the police anything about this little business, as we have taken every precaution to baffle them and you would find the cure very much worse than the disease.

'Nota Bene'—We were careful to leave no trace when removing the remains, and bringing the police into the matter will do you no good, as they will prevent you from paying us the ransom and thereby force us to vengeance. Send someone to the Recoleta to see if we have told you truth or not.

Yours,

The Knights of the Night.

P.S.—We send you herewith a small box painted red. Put the money, in a sealed paper, in it, with a little straw sticking from under the lid, and nail it up. A man will call for it to-morrow at half-past 10 o'clock a.m., but he knows nothing of the contents, who sends them, or who is to get them. Dont speak to him or ask him any questions to arouse his suspicions; otherwise it will be worse for you. Dont delay him; have the box ready for him, and dont attempt to have him followed or you will rue it.

K. O. T. N.

Mrs. de Miro at once showed this letter to her son-in-law, Dn. Felipe Llavallol, and he and his brother, Dn. Martin, at once went to the Recoleta, and found that the knights had done what they said. The Chief of Police was then informed, and he immediately called a conference of all the Commissaries in a private house (his brother's), to prevent the affair getting public. Sweeping measures were decided on. Commissaries Cueto and Suffern were entrusted with the researches, but at one o'clock in the morning Commissary Tasso asked to have a hand in the game, and his confreres only too gladly accepted.

On Friday morning the Chief of Police went to the Recoleta with several of his subordinates, and all the peons and workmen in the Cemetery, and all who approached the place, were arrested and examined. Search was made for the coffin, and after some time it was found hidden, unopened, in the back part of the vault of the Requejo family, with the rope with which it had been removed still round it. Owing to the works going on in the Cemetery the gate has been taken down and the 'resurrectionists' found it easy to get in at night. The coffin was discovered owing to a sharp policeman noticing a flower stuck in a monument opposite the Requejo vault, evidently to mark the spot.

At 10 o'clock on Friday morning the Commissaries had planned their campaign, picking out a couple of dozen of the best policemen to second them. All were disguised as 'changadores,' fruit-sellers, tinkers, &c.; but the 'boy' of the lot was Tasso, disguised as a Neapolitan fruit and fowl-vendor; and as he went along the middle of the street shouting 'Pullu e gallena, compra hovo e pullu gurdu, marchante,' his own mother would not have known him. Commissary Cueto took his post at the Western Railway Station, and Commissary Suffern took his post at the Central Station.

Tasso sat down opposite the Miro Palace, as if tired, chaffing with all his 'conntrymen' who passed by unsuspicious of his little game, and believing him a son of Italy: he sold a lot of fowl and eggs on his way up to the Parque.

At a quarter before eleven a man dressed as a 'changador' entered the Miro Palace. In a few minutes he came out, with the box under his arm, and went along Calle Libertad towards Corrientes, not observing that the 'gallinero' appeared to have recovered from his fatigue, and was following him, as well as some 15 other changadores, tinkers, 'truteros' and other seedy individuals. At the Parque Station Commissary Cueto spotted the game, but so well was Mr Tasso disguised that his brother Commissary took him for an accomplice, and putting a pistol to his head, arrested him. In vain Tasso told him who he was, and not till one of the 'changadores' came up, and swore to the 'gallinero,, was Mr Cueto convinced of his blunder. Fortunately the fellow with the box did not look back.

Soon fox and hounds reached the Central Station, where the former handed the box to another, who jumped into the train, 2nd class. The 'gallinero' did the same, and Commissary Suffern did likewise, having first pitched away his disguise, borrowed the guard's cap and coat, put the latter 'up to snuff', and assumed his duties in the train, telling the engine-driver to be ready to stop at a given signal. The moment the train started the Chief of Police arrested with his own hand the man who had brought the box from the Miro Palace.

Meanwhile guard Suffern was going round for the tickets as the train sped on, and the man with the box, who had made his acquaintance before for some 'faux pas', recognised him and turned as pale as a boiled chicken. The 'gallinero' then changed his seat to one side of him and the 'guard' to the other. Between them they coaxed and terrified him into the confession that he was to throw the box out of the window near Maldonado Bridge, where it would be picked up by another who was waiting there. The engine-driver was told to 'slow' as they got near the bridge, and the Commissaries and several disguised policemen made ready to jump from the train. Two men were observed near the line. Commissary Suffern pitched out the box: one of the men made a rapid dart for it but, on seeing a crowd of men jumping from the train, still in motion, he ran for it, and his companion likewise, towards a carriage, with a man in it, in waiting some squares off.

The chase now began. The two Commissaries and three policemen pressed the quarry close over field and ditch, but the latter reached the carriage and it went off at full gallop towards Belgrano. Nevertheless, the police, officers and men, kept on after it in the most plucky manner. A milkman rode towards them. Tasso seized the reins, told who he was, and demanded the horse. The 'lechero' looked at his greasy garb and refused, but a revolver levelled at his head settled the matter, and the Commissary was soon in full gallop after the carriage. Farther on Commissary Suffern managed to 'press' a bread-cart in the same fashion, and, with the Spanish equivalent for 'Yoicks, tally-ho, forward!' (if there be one) away he lashed after his colleague. Soon, to their surprise, they met the carriage coming towards them. It was empty! They jumped into it and told the driver to go for his life. At Mr Corvalan's quinta the tired horses stopped: they could not get up the steep barranca. The Commissaries jumped out, rushed into the quinta and were told by Messrs. Corvalan that two men answering the description of the runaways had just passed. Messrs. C. then ordered their ponies and joined the Commissaries in the pursuit, the latter again on foot, but as determined as ever. Through quintas and gardens, overhedges and wire-fences the whole party went. Messrs. Corvalan finally running the fugitives down two or three squares from the Plaza, as they were about to take the tramway for town. When the panting Commissaries arrived they found the day was won. They had gained a veritable detective Waterloo, with the assistance of Messrs. Corvalan in the role or the Prussians.

The pair were marched to the Juzgado, and here Mr. Tasso's admirable disguise caused his Belgrano colleague to make the same blunder as Commissary Cueto, and order him to be locked up, mistaking him for one of the criminals. There was a tremendous roar of laughter in the Juzgado when Tasso revealed himself, saying to his Belgrano confrere—'Not so fast, my friend; you must not take me by my looks.'

About 4 o'clock, p.m., the affair drew to its close in the Policia, in Plaza Victoria, where five prisoners were assembled. Domingo Parodi, a well-known thief, arrested amongst the numbers at the Recoleta, where he tried to pass as a peon of the Cemetery; the changador who carried the box from the Miro Palace; Antonio Peri, the other who took charge of it in the train, an Italian. 25 years in the country; Vicente Mori, a Turk, one of those taken in Belgrano, and the other, Antonio Peñarande, 5 years in the country, and apparently a man of some educacatioa. He is supposod to have written the letter to Mrs. Miro. Peri is a seedy-looking individual, whose appearance is by no means improved by a large liver mark on one of his cheeks: he is well known as a beach-loafer. Mori, the follower of the Prophet, is a handsome, strapping fellow. Peñarande is a tall, fair man, with blue eyes and large beard, and might easily pass for a respectable member of society. Such is all we can gather of this 'strange, eventful history.'

TURFIANA.

LUJAN RACES.

As there is so much public interest centred in the great Lujan meeting of 8th and 9th prox. I will try to give the Standard readers some information that may prevent them losing their money.

Of the 32 horses entered in the Premio Argentino I do not think that more than twelve will start for the $110,000, the largest prize ever run for in the Argentine Republic. All the youngsters that appear to have a chance are the progeny of Blair Adam and Porteño, the latter by that grand horse Hermit, the best sire in England. Stay, there is an exception, Rambler by Robin Rover, a dangerous colt, own brother to Ivanhoe and Rosina.

Narcissus, the representative of the Santa Teresa Stud, will be in the race from start to finish and has been backed heavily by his stable. He is a fine raking colt, in top condition and has already twice carried his colours to victory. A great turn of speed appears to be his strong point.

Aconite is the pick of Martinez's lot and will make it lively for the winner, is slower than Narcissus but probably has more staying power. He has the most blood of the lot and is brother to the famous Ibrahim.

Atalanta, a grand lengthy filly by Porteño, ought to be the winner of the race, but her condition is not good enough to carry her up the hill which so often proves fatal to non-stayers.

Soldado, another Porteño, although an outsider I look upon as a colt capable of surprising friends and foes. If there should be a punishing finish, Soldado will not be far off.

Diuah in the winner of the Argentine Oaks, which race was the greatest surprise ever known on the Argentine turf, the $50 tickets of the Sport giving $7,800 each. She is known as La Petisa, being rather dwarfish in stature. If she can stay, which is not generally believed, she will struggle into a place. She is in good condition, carrying rather too much flesh.

Venus, a fine Sataustoe filly, own sister to Lucifer, is a beauty with a rare turn of speed. She will show well at the start.

That unfortunate colt, Rambler will, I fear me, have disappointed his backers. Although one of the best of the crowd he is soft in condition and will be in trouble at the top of the hill.

The rest of the field are rank outsiders, and 50 to 1 can be laid against any of them.

The pace will be tremendous for the first half-round, as it has leaked out that Narcissus will try the Robert the Devil style, go to the front and try to cut down his field before making the Pigeon House. After careful study I select for winner with Aconite for second, and Dinah third.

Handicap Rivalidad.

I mark now that game jilt Rosina as being able to dispose of her middling company.

Handicap Popularidad.

This should have been a hollow affair for Priapo, but his last trial was very unsatisfactory, and that beautiful jilt, Sarah Jane, ought to canter home a winner.

President's Cup.

Huerfana and Reina del Monte will dispute this prize, the latter having slightly the better chance.

Handicap Velocidad.

A very interesting race and one where money will flow freely. If Sarah Jane carries off the race on the previous day, she will most likely land the event.

Handicap Progreso.

Single Race. Dan Tucker is trying to perform a difficult feat in this handicap. Having won the 'great' handicap with 100 lbs. on his back, getting 14 and 22 lbs. from Druid and Blissfull respectively, he has now to concede 21 lbs. each to Eclipse and Retiro, both six year olds. It is a dangerous feat for Dan to attempt to carry 135 lbs. home in safety, after being trained all the year with 110 lbs. Ciudado Daniel.

If I alter my opinion before the 8th, you will have the pleasure of hearing from me again.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Royal Mail steamer Trent will sail to-morrow. Mail bags close at 1 o'clock. Our office is open this morning from 9 till 11 o'clock, for sale of our Packet Edition which is included in this issue.

The 'resurrectionist' affair at the Recoleta was almost the only thing spoken of in town yesterday. We give full particulars in another column. It is the most thrilling business ever known in the R. Plate, and our wealthy subscribers very naturally feel nervous lest it should be repeated, which is not likely, considering the really masterly manner in which the police dealt with the matter. Commissary Tasso is such a magnificent actor that if he would consent to join Mr William Martin's amateur corps, he would be the greatest of aquisitions.

On Tuesday next the Feast of St. Rose of Lima, there will be High Mass in San Roque Church at noon. The Passionist Fathers have announced a Mission in this church, to commence on Sunday next, 4th prox, and ending on the following Sunday.

The 'Knights of the Night' occupied public attention so much yesterday that nobody seemed to care about news from Montevideo. In any case there was none, except about the Suarez fetes, which seem likely to last till Doomsday, or till Latorre arrives. One telegram says that the 'refresco' at the Government House was 'muy animado.'

The news from the West Coast is most important. Pierola's guerillas have advanced as far as San Juan, and the Chilians have sent a division of 3000 men against them. As regards the Treaty with this country, some of the telegrams say that a reaction in public opinion has set in against the Treaty. Delays are proverbially dangerous.

Those who have no special engagement for next Wednesday night should take a box or a seat in the Opera House to hear the Grau French Company make its debut in Mignon. This piece had a wonderful run in Europe, and is a charming one. This company is the best of its kind that has ever crossed the Line, and its artists stand very high even in Europe.

"Have you seen Latorre?' is the question of the day, and some few people are able to reply that they 'think' they have. Nobody seems to know whether the Colonel has left town yet or not, but a few do know. Spring begins on the 21st prox. and there will be a great demand for beds in the Montevidean Capitania about then.

We recommend our fair readers to procure a copy of Madame Mansilla de Garcia's beautiful song 'Yo no se si te quiero' with piano accompaniment. It is a charming drawing-room ditty, and is certain to become the rage in fashionable 'salons.'

The National Senate Committee had another meeting yesterday about the Consolidation Bill, but could arrive at no decision, and postponed the matter till to-morrow.

We are sorry to see by the last report of the Revista Medica that the public health is the reverse of improving. Rheumatism, typhoid fever, small-pox and other pleasant complaints are rife, and there is an epidemic of children's diseases. The hot weather of the past week will not tend to lessen the prevailing infirmities, except perhaps in the case of rheumatism, which is more prevalent than ever known before.

The Nueva Revista for September is very interesting. Dn R de Elizalde contributes a clever article on the Chilian Treaty. Mr B Mitre's paper on Belgrano is very good, and Mr V G Quesada on the Chilian Treaty is very conclusive as to this country's rights.

Commander Clodomiro Urtubey, A.N., who is now in England and has recently witnessed many manoeuvres by the British sea and land forces, gives it as his opinion that the Navy is superior to the Army.

The French Chambers have just passed a Law prohibiting any member of the Legislature from being on the Board or in any way whatever connected with financial companies. This is by no means a bad law. Cæsar's wife should not even be suspected.

National Bank Shares..	122

The gold market opened and closed much duller and weaker than yesterday, and the bulls in gold were somewhat frightened when they heard of the interview yesterday between the President of the Bank and the Governor; all the ring that yesterday, when the news came from London of an advance in the Bank rate, bought for a rise, stood back to-day, and some sold for a fall. A special meeting of the Bank Directors was held to-day, but no one knew the import. Gold opened at 25.65 and closed at same rate; cash sales, 60,819 pats. For end of month 332,000 pats at 25.70. Thus gold ruled dearer for Wednesday next than for cash, and on long dates 450,000 pats sold at 25.55-50.

Cedulas ruled weaker to-day than before, and the bears are working hard to put down the market; prices opend for cash at 99 and closed at 99½, and for end of month at 99¼, and for Oct. at 98¾, and Sept. at 99¼.

National Bank Shares defeat every one, and mock all the efforts of the bears. It seems from the purchases to-day that people who sold short for the end of the month at 118 and 119 secure of splendid profits, are now securing splendid losses. Prices for cash opened at 121 and closed at 122; sales 706 shares. For the end of the month 2,050 shares sold, opening at 121½ and closing at 123, highest mark yet. For Sept. 3,700 shares, opening at 119, shutting at 120½.

The National Bank discounted yesterday 100,000 pats and arranged with the Government of San Juan for the service of its trifling loan of 50,000 pats. The business of the Nat. Bank shows the most rapid growth.

Telegrams from Valparaiso to-day state that all the Chilian Press in favor of treaty, and in many of the papers there are leaders deploring that the Argentine press attack the treaty.

We give in another column very important news about the B. Aires Great Southern Railway. Everything that the Company can do to please the public it is certainly doing, and the fares next month will be lower than before the 'curso forzoso'.

The sales at the ring were—
For cash 60,819 25.65
For August 31st 332,000 25.70
For Sept. 30th 445,000 25.50-55-50
For Oct. 31st 15,000 25.50
Sales, 852,819.

Gold at afterhours ruled still harder, and prices rose to 25.75 buyers, sellers asking 25.80. It looks as if we are to have another squeeze at the end of this month, and it appears the market will be left to itself; neither Bank or Government will sell.

Some very uncomfortable rumours about Chile were afloat this afternoon, which may have had an influence on gold. Many brokers for well known houses bought gold on long dates this afternoon.

At the meeting of Bank Directors to-day the terms of arrangement of the 20 Millions Loan were submitted by the Government to the Board, and we suppose approved of. People on 'Change this afternoon remarked that we are now very close at the end of the month, and yet the gold that it was said at the end of last month was telegraphed for, has not come out.

The sale of 15 leagues of camp in the South by Sr Lezama announced some time ago was completed to-day for 15 millions. Mr Ramos Otero buyer.

Nat. Bank Shares ruled in the afternoon and up to closing hour firmer than ever. It seems the chief business going on was what is termed 'casaring' operations; buyers as a rule accepting 123 from the sellers to close up accounts, although the market rate ruled somewhat higher. Stupendous losses have been made by some of the sharpest ring men within the last week, having sold short at what they considered high rates, and now have to buy back at a loss of from 10 to 15 o/o. We heard of one party who has been obliged to sell a fine house for $450,000 merely to pay differences. Verily, we never in a long 20 years' experience of the Bolsa witnessed before what is going on now. The real winners are those who six months ago bought stocks cash and on time, realised at a small gain of say 30 to 40 o/o, and put the proceeds into properties beyond Bolsa or speculative jurisdiction; those men not only knew how to make money but also how to keep it when made and availed of an opportunity that perhaps will never again occur in a life time

News from Patagonia to-day says that Col. Winter followed up the Indians to their toldos capturing 58, and about 50 mares; still there is a hitch down there; we all thought there were no more Indians; who cares to buy land at Bahia Blanca or Sauce Corto to-day?

To-morrow morning Capt. Hart Dyke entertains on board his fine steamer Trent, some 50 Congress Deputies; we hope the weather will be favourable, as it would be a dreadful thing to see 50 Congress Deputies all sea-sick.

A Turk, a Belgian, and an Italian stand charged with rushing off with Mmd. Dorrego's corpse. The affair has caused sensation in every household, had the deceased lady been buried in a deep grave, the proper burial, then we should have been spared this Greenwood parody.

The Irish family sent out by Dean Dillon, has been engaged on an estancia at Mar Chiquita.

Dr. Jorge, President of the Western Railway, leaves for London on Monday in the Trent; he takes in his pocket the 20 millions loan, and will sign the bonds in old Broad-street; we desire him a most agreeable trip.

Every one on 'Change compliments the Chief of Police and the Commissaries Suffern, Tasso, Cueto, and Carnadas on their splendid victory; not in London or Paris could the police have won greater laurels. It only shows what splendid police we might have here, if everything was properly managed, we mean assassins when caught, tried, convicted and shot, but we are evidently on the mend.

People on the Bolsa this evening asked for Mr Shaw, the populas manager of the Belgrano Gas Works, they want to compliment him on his purchase of the Belgrano Tramway for £3000,000. The judgment creditor, Pozzoni, has now been paid off 3½ millions, and Mr Shaw holds the road.

At the Plaza Once there is nothing short of a sensation, at the news that on Monday they begin to move all the galpones to the Floresta

The fine house Calle Tacuari near Victoria, that could not be sold at auction, was sold to-day privately for a million; dead cheap 17½ x 55.

Mr Stetson took leave of his friends to-day, he sails on Monday for an 8 months' trip to England and the United States: we hope to see him soon back.

The new Balvanera market is now going up. Cheap beefsteaks and mutton chops for our friends there.

Exchange, owing to rise in gold, rules at 49½, and we hear that in francs at 5.22 a good deal done.

At 5 o'clock 1000 National Bank Shares bought in one lot for September at 121½. Verily, the buyer has courage, but the corner, they say, is complete. Four parties hold 4000 shares each, and two parties who sold out at good profits over 12,000 shares a week ago are now buying for September.

Mr. H Aligeit's wheat circular this week is important. Wheat has dropped 10 to 12 per fanega, and flour falling; large lots Santa Fe offering; too much bread for the people—a good sign. Maize in strong demand, five export houses buying.

The latest advices from Montevideo are less alarming, and the general opinion in that market is that the Government party is much stronger than supposed. Moreover, the military or Santos party are pledged to support themselves, which in fact is the present Government, and although the news of Latorre's arrival in this city has naturally caused much excitement down there, it is not by any means certain that a revolution even with Latorre at its head would succeed. In the country parts of the Banda Oriental there is the usual levying of troops, &c., and we note that some of the estancieros are now shipping their cattle over to this Province; a very capital move. Large lots of cattle in the Banda Oriental are offered for sale in this market, and at cheap prices, but this only conditioned on the delivery of cattle here; any party who would start the business of ferrying cattle across from Higueritas or Colonia would make a very capital business. Stocks in Montevideo have not fallen to the extent anticipated, and it is not probable that Uruguay Bonds have fallen much in London, since the agent of Reuter here has not considered the present attempt sufficient to justify a telegram to London announcing revolution.

Great complaint is made about the arbitrary and unjust procedure of the tax collectors of the Municipality in Calle Mejico and that district; the tax is but 4 o/o, but the collectors leave papers for more, which if not paid gives the trouble of going to the Commisary and losing a day after the matter and a fine of 2 m/c.

The following late news about the Antwerp produce market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date July 28th, 1881, is important:—

Hides—
Although the sales on the spot have considerably fallen off, we have to report a firm market. Shortly after issuing our last report, a sale of a cargo Uruguay ox on the English coast at 7¼d for heavies, and 6¾d for lights, made the market look easier; this price, although not lower than the last sale of same description, being below what was expected. Other owners, however, did not feel inclined, to follow suit so that the market soon rallied again, and an advance of ¼d was paid for a cargo Rio Grande heavy ox afloat. The sales to arrive in this market show very firmly maintained prices for most sorts, and an advance of fs.1 for Uruguay ox, 32 to 40 kilos.

In general the aspect of the market continues favorable; supplies remain moderate, and there can hardly be any doubt that the demand for hides on the spot will in a short time revive and higher prices be paid.

We note the following sales to arrive:—

All the hides of 20 to 28 kilos to come out of 9,195 Fray Bentos saladero ows, 47-28 lbs., per Nicolas Frank, at secret price.

All the hides of 32 to 40 kilos (up to 1,000) to come out of 10,000 Fray Bentos saladero ox, 64-22 lbs., at fs.81 per Harry Blackwood, and all the hides of 25 to 32 kilos to come out of the same vessel at fs.79.

All the hides of 32 to 40 kilos to come out of 9,000 saladero Luro ox, 63 lbs., per Sappemer at fs.81.

All the hides of 32 to 40 kilos to come out of 3,000 B. Aires saladero Repetto, Magdalena ox, 63 lbs., per Margaretha, at fs.81.

The following are the sales on the English coast:—

Luigia Teresa, 2,600 Salto ox hides, 67 lbs., at 7¼d for heavy, and 6¾d for light.

San Nicolai, 5,600 Rio Grande ox, 68 to 68½ lbs., at 7d for heavies.

Tallow—
No stock on spot.

By the Caroline, from Fray Bentos, 80 pipes saladero beef have arrived for which fs.89 has been bid and refused; fr.91 is the price asked.

Afloat we have to mention the sale of the cargo of 800 pipes saladero beef per Sincero Primo at 37s, English floating conditions, for a near port.

Hidecuttings—
There has been no demand for this article, and only a few bales have been sold.
Stock, 122 bales.

Hair—
Has been in good request at former rates.
Sales, 217 bales and 15 bags.
Stock, 200 bales, 84 bags.

Horns and Piths—
Horns in active demand at rising prices.
Sales amount to 125,831 horns.
Stock, 200,000 horns.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

August 19th.

The two Extensions, North and South, taken in hand by the National Government, do not seem to be progressing in a very satisfactory manner. The Andine line, under the direction of the National Engineer, Mr Villanueva, was started amidst great 'bombo'; and, in justice to that gentleman, I think we may say that he has displayed much energy and talent, and is doing his work well. But this work is paralized for want of sleepers. The penny wise and pound foolish policy of our Governments is always cropping up to the prejudice of the interests of the country. There is no doubt that the irresponsible contractors have found out that they cannot furnish the sleepers at the low prices contracted for. There are plenty of good men, experienced in the business, who were ready to contract for the delivery of any number of sleepers, but at a remunerative price. Instead of using a little commercial discretion, the Government kept their eyes fixed on the economy of a few cents, and never thought of the all-important question of the responsibility of the contractor. And so, the works of the Southern Extension are stopped for want of sleepers, when millions are to be had on the line of the Western Railway. I wonder why the Engineer Department has not proposed to build the line partly with iron sleepers. There can be no objection to the use of both kinds, as on the Central Argentine for instance Then there would be no cause for delaying the works, as in the absence of wooden sleepers, iron ones could be used.

The same misplaced economy is paralyzing the works on the Northern Extension. Mr Sanchez, the manager of the Tucuman line, is also superintendent of the works of the extension, as if the administration of a railway, three hundred and fifty miles long, was such a simple matter that the manager had lots of time at his disposal to attend to the construction of another line of the same length. It is true the Telfener experiment was a bit of rather bitter experience for the National Government; but by-gone extravagance is not to be remedied by imprudent parsimony. On the Northern extension it is notorious that the gangs of workmen are in a continuous state of insubordination, it is said from the lowness of the wages paid them. There are probably other causes originating in want of experience of the engineers. I have likewise observed that a man may be a good engineer or a good manager, and be very unequal to the work of superintending the construction of a railway. The Capital says that the wages of the employees on the Northern extension are not in proportion to the work they have to do, and the consequence is that the men are deserting continually. Another reason is that the 'peones' sent to the works are mostly inexperienced and are really not capable of undergoing the rude fatigue to which railway navvies are subjected. The only remedy in these cases is giving the 'peones' piece work. When a man finds that by constant work he can make double or treble wages, he soon becomes a good and steady workman, and parties all are benefited.

This week was ushered in by a complete change in the temperature and weather. The heat culminated into a threatening aspect yesterday, and during the night we had a deluge of rain, with promise of more. The drought has been long and severe, but I think the excessive and prolonged cold weather mitigated in somewhat the effects of the drought. As far as agricultural interests are concerned, no damage has been done yet, and if the present rainfall be not followed by heavy frosts, the crops this year will be magnificent. Cattle and sheep have suffered very little as yet, but estancieros, although of course welcoming the rain, must be still a little dubious about what effect frost might have within the next fortnight.

I am sorry to have to inform you of the death of Mr John Boardman. Mr Boardman was in the prime of life, although he might have been included amongst the oldest English inhabitants of Rosario. He came out, quite a boy, with Mr Wheelwright, and was for many years connected with the Central Argentine Railway, and also with the Land Company. Mr. Boardman was universally liked, and his premature death has startled and grieved our entire Anglo-Saxon community. His funeral took place yesterday, and his remains were followed to the grave by almost every Englishman and American in town.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

August 16th

The week has opened with a sustained gold and a trembling stock market; gold ruled much easier than on Saturday night, and we are happy to say there is no truth whatever in the rumour of a broker having failed, which was spoken of on Saturday. Gold opened at 25.70 cash, closing at 25.75; cash sales, 63,763 pats. For the end of the month 365,000 pats sold at 25.65, and on long dates 143,500 pats sold at 25.60-55.

In Cedulas the bears still rule the market and sold some 270,000 on time at low rates; prices for cash held at 99, only 25,000 sold. For Saturday 4,000 at 99¼, and for end of the month 85,000 sold, opening at 99, and closing at 99½. For September the bears are selling strongly, prices opened at 98⅞, dropped to 98¼ and closed at 98⅞. Sales amounted to 140,000. For October 20,000 at 98⅞, and for December 20,000 at 98¼.

National Bank Shares caved in to-day on the sale of 1,000 shares cash by a Montevidean holder; prices opened at 108½ and closed at 108; cash sales, 1,158. For end of month 1,850, opening at 110 and closing at 108½. For September 1,700 sold, opening at 107½ and closing at 106½. There was a break in the whole line to-day in National Bank Shares, and the weight of the market is much felt.

Gas Shares are marching on, and some 450 shares sold; for to-morrow 350 in various lots at 2,060, and for cash 50 shares at the same rate, and then one lot of 50 shares at 2,100.

At afternoon there was not much done; gold decidedly weaker, and sellers offering at 25.60 for end of the month, but few operations. Nat. Bank Shares at 108 sellers cash, and Cedulas at 99½ buyers cash, and 99½ sellers for end of month.

The gay party of brokers, bankers and estancieros that started on Saturday for Rosario in the Pingo returned yesterday and the individual members were duly welcomed on 'Change; it was a most delightful excursion.

Wool men state that now that they have received the papers of the last Antwerp auction they find out that 5,000 bales Australian were offered at that auction, which is a new departure.

Mr Jones, of the Welsh Colony, had a long interview to-day with the Minister of the Interior about the Chubut colony. Another interview is fixed for Thursday at one o'clock.

August 17, 1881.

There was a very changed appearance in the market to-day. Gold much offered and declining. Cedulas strong, many buyers, and National Bank Shares hard and rising. The gold market has very much flattened since the half month's liquidation, and it is not likely that the market will experience any strong demand before 24th or 25th. Gold opened and closed at 25.65 for cash; 52,100 sold. For Saturday 60,000 at 25.60; for end of month 310,000 at 25.60, and on long dates 250,000 sold at 25.55-50. Total gold sales 672,100.

Cedulas ruled very firm, and if the stock sold short for the end of the month is called for, the bears will again experience a corner. Prices opened and closed firm at 99¾ cash; 19,600 sold. For the end of the month 30,000 sold at 99½, and on long dates 80,000 sold at 98⅝-99. Total sales 129,600.

National Bank Shares seem to have turned the corner and are again looking upwards. The news at the ring was that the money to carry the stock at the end of the month has been secured, and that people who have sold shares had better make preparation to deliver same, as the stock will be called for. As for the money, it was a mere question of interest, and as a rise of 2 or 3 per cent covers every possible charge for interest, speculators care little what rate they pay so long as they secure the money. 482 shares were sold cash, opening at 109 and closing at 110. For end of month 3,780 shares sold, opening at 109, dropping to 108¾ and closing at 110½. For September 2,650 shares sold, opening at 106 and closing at 108. Total sales, 6,800. The present rise in this stock will render the month's liquidation still more difficult; many think that the share market has hardened at these prices, and some of the great speculators are now making a market, and it seems most probable, however, next week will try the stock, and if the money is found to pay for the shares, then we may look for a full resumption of former prices.

To-day we had an interview with the first of Dean Dillon's Irish families, arrived per Archimedes, a farmer from the County Wicklow. We think the Dean had better wait a little until Government assign the lands for these emigrants, otherwise we may find fresh difficulties; at present the settlement of so many Welshmen gives plenty to do.

August 18th

This was a great day on 'Change, and the excitement in the National Bank Share market more intense than ever. The speculators in this stock seemed to-day to possess fresh elements, and the share market opened with a jump. Gold was forgotten and no interest taken in anything save the shares. It is really difficult to say where all this speculation will stop; some put the end of this month as the limit, whilst others say there will be greater speculation in September in the stock than ever. The shares must reach a figure which will be a limit to such gigantic speculation as that at present going on.

Gold opened at 25.65 and closed at 25.60; cash sales, 50,425 pats. For Saturday 25,000 pats. sold at 25.60, for end of month 100,000 pats, opening at 25.60, dropping to 25.55, and closing at 25.60, and on long dates 382,000 pats. sold at 25.50-45. Gold ruled so much weaker to-day than yesterday that people naturally asked the cause. There is a whisper in the market that the Provincial Consolidated Loan of 20 Millions is either done or partially done. Something is evidently up, and we believe we are justified in stating that before the end of the month this all important business will be concluded, which as a matter of course will completely change the appearance of this market.

The Cedula market ruled much stronger today and prices advanced a little, outsiders are evidently buying cash, as there is a strong cash demand for the stock, and new buyers are now coming forward for the end of the month. The cash sales amounted to 63,400 all at 99¾. For end of month 35,000, opening at 99½, and closing at 99¼. For September 99⅜, and for Oct. and Nov. 99. Total sales 123,400.

Gas shares are very buoyant and look good for 3000 m/c per share before the next dividend; some strong buyers take up everything offered, to-day 406 shares sold in various lots 350 at 2100, and then 155 at 2150. An offer made at this rate for a large lot and declined.

National Bank Shares absorb the market, and even our most fashionable brokers who danced all night till the broad da-light at the Alvear ball, were as gay as larks at the ring when they found what they bought yesterday could be sold to-day at such handsome profit. The market opened with a roar, and prices flew up to 117 before the brokers had time to talk with their clients, who stood in crowds round the ring. Let no man offer an opinion on these shares, since the market baffles all judgment, the raising of interest by the Bank, the selling out of the largest holder, some 12,000 shares; the tightening of discounts, all would naturally lead one to calculate upon a permanent fall in the market. Yet, the result proves otherwise, and shares looked firmer to-day than ever. Some of the very strong men stand back from the market unwilling to buy at such prices, and yet unwilling to sell 'descubierta', but the present attitude of the market is explained by some who say that thousands and thousands of shares have been sold for the end of the month short, and the sellers are now buying back, as they have taken fright hearing that the Italians have got the money and will take up every share in the market. Meanwhile we noticed that the king of the market, the great Italian bull 'par excellence,' let go several hundred shares to-day at 116, but the speculation going on baffles every reckoning, and people who bought the other day at 108 and were rather nervous at their purchase, now make splendidly; others who held impossible orders to sell cash a few days ago at 111 and 112 now find they sold too soon. The Bank Shares at present rule the whole market; prices for cash opened at 113¾ and shut at 115½; 1433 sold cash. For end of month 4110, opening at 115, running up to 117, and closing at 116½. For end September 2700 opening at 114, going up to 114½, closing at 113. Every one we met in the street to-day seemed to be hurrying to the Bolsa to buy Bank shares.

Our Special Finance Reporter favors us with the following—

1—A Senator of much influence is about to present to Congress a comprehensive scheme to nationalize the Provincial Bank.

2—There is much going on in high quarters about the 20 millions loan, negotiations are proceeding, the Minister holds 3 offers, business will be closed before end of month.

3—Mr Bonwer, representative of Baring Bros., has had various interviews with Governor Rocha.

4—Minister Uriburu's Mortgage Bank project will be most favorable for the Bank, and in these days sent to the Chambers. The Minister has had frequent interviews with Dr Llambi Campbell, President of the Mortgage Bank.

5—It is rumoured that the bull ring of N. Bank share speculators are about to raise a loan with a Montevidean Bank on the shares.

6—A rich native property holder and capitalist, well known in this market, is trying to negotiate a loan with the Provincial Government for account of a London German banking firm for the expropriation of the Southern Railway.

7. An ex-Government broker, for account of a Paris house, has made offers to the Provincial Government, for the whole of the 20 million Consol loan.

8—The Provincial Bank will continue restricting discounts to end of this month, and if gold does not advance will in September begin to discount liberally.

9—The Board of Bank Directors has empowered the President to treat with the Government for the 20 million loan and the placing of the Bonds in London; to-day Mr Casares held his first conference with the Government.

August 19th 1881.

The market opened this morning with gold very weak, and sellers on long dates at 25.40, prices for cash opened at 25.55, dropped to 25.50, and closed at 25.55, only 25,000 sold cash. For Saturday 38,500 at same rates, for end of month 165,000 at 52.50-55, and on long dates 175,000 at 25.40-45. In gold there is really not a particle of speculation going on, and people only sell on time according as the brokers for the houses ask to secure lots for business purposes.

Cedulas were in strong demand to-day and prices have again resumed par. 30,000 were sold cash, opening at 99¾, rising to 99¾ and closing at 99¾. For end of month 18,000 at 99⅜, and for Sept. 41,000 at 100 disponible. Total sales, 89,000, which is a small day's business.

National Bank Shares mock the bears, and although it was freely said the Italian King was selling out, prices were firm as a rock. The generally accepted version is that at the close of the month 20,000 shares have to be paid for or down comes the market, but they all seem to think that the money is already engaged, and this is what has given such buoyancy to the market. 390 shares were sold cash, opening at 115 and closing at 115½. For end of month 1,950 sold, opening at 115, dropping to 114 and closing at 115½. For September 2,000, opening at 113, dropping to 112¼ and closing at 113½.

The rise in the Bank of England rate of interest to 3 o/o was only known on 'Change five minutes before the ring closed; it had the immediate effect of hardening a little the gold market, say 5 cents, but nothing more. Many parties attach great importance to this news from London, but had they read the last London financial papers they would have been well prepared for this news, as it is the sequel of the new Italian loan, which absorbs 14 millions sterling between now and January, as will be seen from the terms of this loan which we give hereunder. So great is the plethora of money in the London market at present that the Italian loan has proved rather a boon to the market than otherwise, and we cannot think that it will have any great effect out here. Money is flowing very strong from Europe to this, nor is it likely that this current will be checked in view of the great fertility of our lands and their extremely low price, when compared with those of other countries.

To-day the Minister of the Interior held another interview with Mr Jones and others respecting the Welsh colonists. The National Government takes a great interest in the success of the newly arrived Welsh colonists, and those at present in the city all go forward in the Villarino. The Government agrimensor, Mr Serra, goes with the party to measure out the new farms; thus it is to be hoped as Mr Jones, the pioneer of Welshmen in the R Plate, goes in the Villarino, all will fall out well, but these Welshmen have been over a month here in the town doing nothing, and although supported by the Government still they complain greatly of the delay. Information has been received of another batch of 60 now on the way out, and from what we hear there will be a steady stream of Welshmen to this country all during the spring and summer. Mr Albert Fernandez attended the meeting to-day and offered the Minister to put on a line of sailing vessels that would land the colonists at Chubut and not at the new bay, as is the case with the Villarino.

August 20th

The market opened buoyant with the news from the Provincial Government House that Minister Uriburu had finally concluded arrangements with the house of Messrs Baring Brothers, of London, respecting the 20 Million Consol Loan. The particulars of the arrangement were not thoroughly understood on 'Change, but the general 'on dit' is that the new Bonds will be deposited with Messrs Baring Bros. to be negotiated as occasion offers, and at a rate not under 90, the house in question advancing to the Bank by way of exchange credits 50 o/o of the amount of the loan. Of course the full import and meaning of all this business is well understood by merchants, high exchange throughout the year, and people who have not already drawn for wool purchases will now have to import gold, as the Provincial Bank with this business will completely rule the market for the next 12 months. There was a fresh spring in everything to-day on 'Change save gold, which though hard enough for cash is very weak on time.

The gold market opened heavy; the cash sales amounted to 108,182 pats., beginning at 25.55, dropping to 25.50 and closing with a sigh at 25.60. For end of month 207,000 pats sold at 25.55, and on long dates 310,000 pats sold at 25.45-40. Total sales, 632,182 pats.

Cedulas are marching on; another push was made by the bears to-day by selling heavily on time, but it completely failed, and the stock rules harder than ever. People who ought to know what is going on say that the omission of 8 o/o Cedulas will terminate this month. The total sales to-day amounted to 296,000, of which only 5,000 were for cash and at 100¼. For the end of the month 225,000 sold, opening at 100 and closing at 100¾. For September 40,000 sold at 100, for October 10,000 at 100, and for November 10,000 at 99⅞, but the market closed buyers at 100 for that date.

Gas Shares jumped to 2,300 to-day and then dropped to 2,200. At the first price 110 shares sold, and at the latter 415 shares sold. Stock rules upward and very soon will be at 2,500.

National Bank shares ruled harder than ever to-day, and it is quite plain now that the stock will hold at about these figures. We can no longer look for such mighty fluctuations as marked its quotations for the last month. Evidently the holders have found the money required, and the business going on now is chiefly due to the tremendous descubierta that existed; prices opened for cash at 116, rose to 116¾ and closed at 116½; cash sales 765. For Monday 270 at 116¾; for end month 3630, opening at 117½ and closing at 116¾; for September 30th 4200, opening at 113, rising to 114¾ and closing at 114, and for October 31st 113⅝. Total sales close on 8000 shares.

August 22d, 1881

The week has opened with another jump in Nat Bank Shares, and a fresh drop in gold. In the share market the bears are completely defeated and one party who has made out a detailed list of the sales and purchases since the 1st of the month for the 31st, insists that according to his list the market is still heavily oversold, but the very high prices of this stock tempt holders in thn Interior to send down their shares for sale, and to-day one of the largest holders in the Provinces sold out his stock, some 1700 shares. In fact, as the market at present stands, the bulls appear quite masters of the situation, and able to take up everything offered.

Gold rules weaker than ever, and all sorts of versions are current about the arranged loan between Mr Bonwer and the Provincial Government. The Nacion says that Messrs Barings have taken half the loan, firm at 95, the rest to be launched as occasion presents, they to receive a commission of 2½ per cent, and the Government to receive payment at the rate of £700,000 per month. On still better authority however, we learn, that the business has been arranged otherwise; that the bonds are entrusted to Messrs Baring, who advance to the Government one million sterling, that the loan will not be done under 90, but that anything over 90, up to 92½, is to go for commission to the house, and over that sum to the Government. If only done at 90, then the business carries no commission. Whatever may be the details of this business the result is the same; the bottom is clean out of the gold market, and gold for the end of the year at 25.25 was considered dear to-day.

Telegrams arrived from London to-day instructing a leading broker to present the Statutes of the new English Bank to the Government for approval. This looks like business, and there was a hushed whisper in the market that two parties are looking for a proper house for the new bank, and that Mr Pollinini had instructed a party well known in this market to offer to Mr Smithers the new bank building which is in process of construction in Calle Piedad; a most splendid site for the new concern, and a capital bit for Mr Smithers, if he can secure it. The matter was much talked of on 'Change.

August 23d.

There was very little business done in gold to-day; prices ruled a shade firmer than yesterday, although the Government broker sold gold, the proceeds of some Government exchange passed yesterday 3 days sight at 49. Gold opened cash at 25.50, rose to 25.55, and closed at 25.50; cash sales 145,000. For end of month 220,000 sold at 25.50-55, and on long dates only 80,000 sold at 25.30-35-40, total days sale 445,500.

Cedulas ruled flat and dropped, owing to the sale of some 70,000 fresh from the bank, but the new stock was all taken up at 99¾, and we heard on Change that there are now two agencies in this market, one for Montevideo, and the other for London, that take up the new Cedulas issued by the bank before they are offered on the Bolsa; the stock sold this morning must have escaped those agencies. The sales to-day reached 114,900, of which 79,000 were for cash.

National Bank Shares ruled somewhat quieter to-day, and although some very significant parties sold out their stock this morning the market held its own tolerably. All who are out of this most speculative stock stand back watching a fall when they can go in and buy, but the fall they anticipate has not come, and the greater holder who boasted that as he held 12,000 shares he could put the market at 130 or at 90 is now out of the market and erred in his estimate of his own abilities a by no means uncommon error. The stock ruled slightly weaker than yesterday, although a new buyer came to the ring, and it is impossible to judge the value of the shares until the tremendous business for the month's liquidation is cleared off. For cash only 120 shares sold, opening at 119 and closing at 118¾. For end of month 3,490 shares, opening at 119 and closing at 118½. For September 3,350 shares, opening at 117, dropping to 116¾ and closing at 116. Total day's sales, 6,960 shares. They say on 'Change that the total amount of shares to be liquidated at the end of the month will reach one hundred thousand, of which perhaps only 30,000 will be 'efectivo'. Yet this is a heavy figure enough for this market.

Aug. 24th, 1881

The gold market, as we draw near the end of the month, shows the same hardening tendency that it did last month at the same period. Many parties on 'Change seem to think that the cheapest thing in the country to-day is gold, and there is always a sustaining element found at the ring. Of course the month's liquidation which is so near at hand, always causes an artificial demand for gold, but we think the pressure this month will be less than last. Gold opened at 25.55, and held there all day, cash sales 69,162. For Saturday 20,000 at 25.60, for end of month 220,000 at 25.55 to 60, closing at 55, and for Sept. 100,000 at 25.40. Sales to-day 409,162.

In Cedulas very little done, 21,600 sold cash at 99½, and 59,500 for end of month at 99½ to ¾, but no speculation in the market.

Gas shares nothing done to-day, buyers offering, and large lots might be realized at current rates, but holders seem in no hurry to part with their stock.

Nat. Bank Shares rule firm, steady, and looking upward, the market astonishes the bears, and we note a strong growing speculation for September. Many transactions for the end of this month will be passed over to September, and people are now beginning to admit that there is nothing so surprising in the great business going on in the share market, since there is nothing else left on the Bolsa to speculate in. The business in the stock to-day may be summarized so—

For cash	603 shares
Do end of month	1500
Do September	2640
Do October	400
Do December	50
Total	5193

Thus it will be seen there was not such heavy work to-day, since there are men at the ring ready at any moment to buy or sell five thousand shares when prices suit them. Prices for cash opened at 113⅜, and closed at 113⅝. For end of month fixed as the Polar star at 119. For end Sept. firm as a rock at 117, for October there is a young business going on at 117 and 116, and already the brokers are casting the horoscope for end of year; a trifle sold just to show people the look of things for then at 110.

The Minister of Interior was unable to attend to-day, but parties waited on Dr Alvarez to inform him that 50 more Welshmen are in, and to ask what about sending them down to Chubut. The Welshmen are the only Britishers that outstrip Argentines and their Government. President Roca has received a most amusing letter from Wales stating that all the Welshmen there are about to come out here; where the rights wh h they lost in Old England they hope to revindicate in this Republic; we hope to get the letter for publication.

Sixteen sea going vessels entered this port yesterday full of Carlon wine, kerosene, coal, comestibles, &c., and we ask ourselves in which direction is the outlet for such a stock. The fact is camp districts are rapidly developing, and towns in far outlying districts are growing in importance; thus absorbing these prodigious imports. The South for instance is daily becoming a larger consumer, and to Bahia Blanca we must look as the future port for many of these valuable cargoes. Within a comparatively short period we shall see the whole of that splendid tract of country comprised between Bahia Blanca, Puan and Carhue thickly settled on, and the now projected line of railway will have become an imperative necessity, and an accomplished fact Our prophecies whether of land or Bank Shares have come pretty true, and if we now foretell a rapid rise in the value of camp lying South we ground our reasons on the land itself, the climate so well suited to the European, and the high standing of the men who have lately been large purchasers in the Puan and Bahia Blanca districts. Look over the Engineers' map of the Province and read the proprietors, names; at a glance one notes the official element largely preponderating, sure indicator of picked land. For instance close to Puan we observe twenty leagues in the occupation of the late President of the Republic, and all round there names of men who well know what they are about, and awaiting the brilliant development of which they are sure to reap the benefit. The man who at present junctures on the very threshhold of prosperity sacrifices his land will bitterly repent it, with our words still ringing in his ears. Only lately we alluded to the immense amount of wiring going on South; all that means increased prosperity, and now that the Plaza Montero concession has passed into real business hands there is every probability of an early stir in that direction, the more so as we believe the concessionaire has a somewhat limited period in which to stock as per original contract. We are requested by Messrs Baltar & Quesada to announce that in consequence of the numerous applications to see the land and to give time and every facility for that purpose the sale of the four leagues of land, near Puan, announced for Monday next has been postponed until the 20th of September.

August 25th.

The gold market ruled very hard to-day, and presented all the appearance of another squeeze as the end of the month; over a million one hundred thousand pats sold to-day, and still there were buyers. Gold opened at 25.65 cash, rose to 25.70, and closed at 25.65, cash sales 11,674. For end of month 920,000 sold, opening at 25.60, rising to 25.70, and closing at 25.65. For Sept. 30th, the sales reached 150,000 at 25.60. For Oct. 60,000 at 25.45, and for Oct. 2e,000 at 25.45. Thus there was an advance in the rates all along the long line.

Cedulas ruled very quiet and very little business done, only two small lots for cash sold 2400 at 99¾. For Aug. 20th 32,000 at 99¾, and for Aug. 30th 20,000 at 99¾.

Nat. Bank Shares ruled a shade weaker; the second syndicate, they say, is getting out of the stock, and the third syndicate for Sept. speculation is being formed; the syndicate that made most money was the first, and it is by no means certain yet how the liquidation for the month will close.

The business in the shares to-day was so—

For cash	248 at	118⅜
End month	1330	119-118¾
Sept. 30	5000	117-116¾
Oct. 31	100	116¼
Total sales	6578

Some of the large holders sold to-day, but the price of the stock rests now entirely on the price for end of Sept.

Aug. 26th, 1881

The further rise in the Bank of England rate was the first news on 'Change to-day, and as a matter of course gold at once hardened. Many parties who anticipated an advance in the Bank rate were somewhat surprised that the advance was more than half per cent as is usual with the Bank of England, and it is thought that there must be a very strong drain of gold on the Bank when the rate in a week is put up one per cent.

There was a good deal of what may be termed speculative alarming news talked of on 'Change this afternoon. Houses they said had received telegrams to at once secure their gold for the end of the year, and many other matters which it is just as well to say nothing of, since we regard them as pure bolas, got up for a purpose. Gold certainly rules very hard and may advance somewhat, but we are now nearly over the winter and may look forward to a promising 'cosecha.'

Gold opened at 25.70 cash and closed at 25.65; amount sold cash 54,540. For end of month 561,000 at 25.70. For September 30th 630,000, opening at 25.55 and closing at 25.50. For October 31, 110,000 sold at 25.50 and for November at same rate. Total gold sales 1,388,540 pats.

In Cedulas a little more business done; for cash only one sale, 10,000 at 99½; for to-morrow 18,000 at 99½, and for end of month 39,000 sold at 99¾. Total sales 102,000, of which only 10,000 sold cash.

National Bank Shares showed their true colors to-day, and ran up to 121, being their highest price as yet. Two months ago, when we said the shares were good for 120, every one laughed at the idea. 'Those who laugh longest laugh best. Men on 'Change to-day started at the blackboard; in fact, as far as we can gather, they will take the stock to 130 in Sept., since, according to a private list of the sales kept by one or two to guide the judgment, the bulls have bought already 200,000 shares, which means dire mischief for those who have sold short.

The rise in the Bank of England rate had not the slightest effect on the National Bank shares, although some of the bears hoped it would, still if gold advances, the shares will not be so buoyant.

It was announced on Change that Dr Jorge, the talented President of the Western Railway, goes to Europe in the packet, to sign the 20 million bonds in London. Also they say he goes to negotiate the loan for the expropriation of the Buenos Aires Great Southern Railway; we very much doubt if it will be so easy to raise in London a month hence 5 millions sterling for such a purpose, and it is indeed much to be regretted that there should be any further talk of expropriating this splendid line. The company has proved the sheet anchor of Argentine credit in London, and this expropriation move will prove most injurious to the country's interests.

Dr Cunningham, who has arrived up from the South, reports a very brave act of a boy who rode 7 leagues to a 'puesto' on the Tornquist estancia to try and warn them of the Indians. The bravery of this boy merits reward.

A most extraordinary story was current on 'Change to day. It was said that the body of the late Mrs Dorrego has been stolen from the vault, and notice sent to the family that on the payment of two millions currency it would be restored. A repetition of the A L Stewart business in New York, but the police have defeated the plot.

Letters from London say that Argentine credit is so high now that if the country continus in peace and the Government rules with economy the Argentine Republic will soon be another United States.

Messrs O'Grady, Grant and Power, from the South, were welcomed; they say camps good, but more rain needed.

Cien leguas de Campo.

En Santiago del Estero
Orden del Exmo Gobierno de esa Provincia
Con derecho a ubicar donde se quiera
Primera vez que se vende con esta condicion
SIN BASE ALGUNA
Venta a Plazos
En nuestra casa San Martin No 51
El Martes 20 de September
A las 2 en punto de la tarde

Venderemos al mejor precio y a plazos, por orden del Exmo. Gobierno de la Provincia de Santiago del Estero y con acuerdo de su Legislatura.

Cien leguas de campo, divididas en lotes de a cuatro, teniendo sin embargo el compradcr derecho a tomar desde una hasta las cien.

El Gobierno de Santiago ha sido, como lo de cimos, autorizado por su Legislatura a vender esta gran zona de tierra, pero a objeto de facilitar la operacion, la venta se hara sin otro plano que el de la Provincia, por cuanto se da el derecho de ubicar donde se quiera, dentro de los limites de la misma.

Con este derecho cualquiera persona que este en el secreto de la situacion de un campo inmediato a la plaza principal, a las quintas contiguas a la ciudad o por sus alrededores, puede pedir su ubicacion alli mismo, como tambien los que conozcan donde existen los que puedan tener pastos de primera calidad aguas permanentes, montes, etc.

El Gobierno de Santiago no pretende con esta operacion hacer un negocio.—Su objeto se limita a fomentar el progreso de su Provincia, poniendo la tierra al alcance de todo el mundo, llamando asi a su centro la formacion de grandes establecimientos y la poblacion consiguiente.

A cada comprador se le dara un boleto con un numero de orden y en el cual se fijara un termino para pedir la ubicacion de manera que el primera que compre, sea el primero que elija y asi sucesivamente.

Siendo la venta dentro del territorio de Santiago, ningun otro gobierno iniciara protesta alguna, lo que importara garantizar un titulo perfecto y libre de todo gravamen, habiendose resuelto que las escrituras se otorguen ante de oficina de un escribano de esta capital,

El pago se hara mitad al contado al estenderse la escritura y el resto a 6 y 12 meses en garantia del mismo campo.

En resumen—Jamas se ha puesto en venta un lote de tierra en iguales condiciones y desde hoy el publico debe preocuparse de averiguar en que punto pedir la ubicacion del numero de leguas que necesita para la plantacion de establecimientos de campo, ingenios etc.

No obstante de tener, aqui en Buenos Aires un apoderado general el Gobierno de Santiago nosotros daremos mas pormenores en nuestra casa San Martin 51.
